ABOUT RAQUEL SYMONE

Raquel Symone is a Chicago-based singer, performer, entrepreneur, and Air Force veteran whose music blends soul, blues, rock, and grown-woman confidence into a sound uniquely her own.

Known as the "Rockstress Renegade," Raquel creates music that celebrates femininity, self-expression, resilience, and the power of embracing every season of life. Her growing catalog includes fan favorites such as Fan Me Like That, Cool Queens in Command, Lipstick & Heels, The Chill Is Mine, and My Man.

Beyond music, Raquel is the founder of the Cool Queens movement, a community that encourages women to remain confident, vibrant, and unapologetically themselves.

As a first-generation independent artist, business owner, Air Force veteran, and grandmother, Raquel brings authenticity, humor, wisdom, and energy to every stage she steps on.
